Excerpt: . . . who had sent us these fresh provisions that we might love Him better and serve Him more. The childrens sharp eyes had read correctly. It was not the Dayspring. Our brave little ship had gone to wreck on 6th January, 1873; and this vessel waj the Paragon, chartered to bring down our supplies. Alas ! the wreck had gone by auction sale to a French slaving company, who cut a passage through the coral reef, and had the vessel again floating in the Bay, --elated at the prospect of employing our Mission Ship in the blood-stained Kanaka-txzfac (a mere euphemism for South Sea slavery)! Our souls sank in horror and concern. Many Natives would unwittingly trust themselves to the Dayspring; and revenge would be taken on us, as was done on noble Bishop Pateson, when the deception was found out What could be...
