Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Criminal Law--Evidence--Charge Of Illegal Operation On A Woman--Statements Of Deceased Woman As To Operation. Rex v. Thomson (1912) 3 K. B. 19. This was a criminal prosecution for having used an instrument on a woman to procure a miscarriage. The defendant set up that he had done nothing, and that the woman herself had performed the operation; and in support of his defence he tendered evidence of statements made by the woman, who was dead, that she intended herself to perform the operation, and also that she had in fact performed it. The judge at the trial rejected the evidence as being merely hearsay and, therefore, inadmissible, and the Divisional Court (Lord Alverstone, C. J. , and Darling and Avory, JJ.) held that he was right, there being no ground for admitting the statements either as part of the res gestae or as a dying declaration, or as an admission against interest. Company--Name Of Proposed Company--Similarity To Name Of Company Already Registered--Mandamus--Discretion. The King v. The Registrar of Companies (1912) 3 K. B. 23. This was an application for a mandamus to the registrar of companies to compel him to register the applicants with the name The Water Softening Materials Company (Sofnal), Limited. The registrar had refused their application on the ground that the name resembled a company styled Water Softeners, Limited, already registered, so as to be calculated to deceive within the meaning of s. 8(1) of the Companies Act. The Divisional Court...
